Hi. I'm Susan, I'm an alcoholic and the List Keeper for Loners International. Thanks for writing to the AA Loners email meeting. The AA Loners email meeting is available for A.A. members living more than two hours from the nearest meeting - if you live within 2 hours of a face-to-face meeting please attend the meeting. Loners is not meant for people who can attend Alcoholics Anonymous Meetings. There will never be any greater connection than walking into a meeting of fellow alcoholics and making the "language of the heart connection".

Note that this is not a meeting for those wishing to help A.A. Loners. It is a meeting for A.A. Loners.

If you are not a "loner" we strongly recommend you looking for other A.A. online meetings.

If you need help urgently just go to

If you are looking for an online AA meeting there are plenty of AA online meetings on the Internet:

You will find a good collection of online AA activities here:

<http://www.aa-intergroup.org/>

Here is another good resource:

<http://www.e-aa.org/>

You're also welcome to write to me directly, any time.

The loners email meeting website: <http://oso-aa.org/loners/> will tell you more about our meeting.

If you have looked at the other sites and you have decided to join the loners online AA meeting, please write about your situation as a loner and I will subscribe you.

Thank you for my sobriety,

Susan
List Keeper
