Preamble

Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism.

The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. There are no dues or fees for A.A. membership; we are self-supporting through our own contributions.

A.A. is not allied with any sect, denomination, politics, organization or institution; does not wish to engage in any controversy; neither endorses nor opposes any causes.

Our primary purpose is to stay sober and help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety.

Twelve Traditions

1. Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon A.A. unity.
2. For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority—a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern.
3. The only requirement for A.A. membership is a desire to stop drinking.
4. Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or A.A. as a whole.
5. Each group has but one primary purpose—to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.
6. An A.A. group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the A.A. name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property, and prestige divert us from our primary purpose.
7. Every A.A. group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.
8. Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.
9. A.A., as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.
10. Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the A.A. name ought never be drawn into public controversy.
11. Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio, and films.
12. Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

SIM Meetings

Alcoholics Anonymous (A. A.) Meetings in the San Francisco Bay Area, California

Including Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Napa, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Solano and Sonoma Counties

At this time (April, 2011), we are able to list some 3,531 A. A. meetings (499 Spanish-speaking) in the 9 Bay area counties listed above. Neither the listings nor this index are yet complete, though we hope to have them done by October, after which work will still remain – first of all in finding the many obviously unlisted Spanish-language meetings.

Where possible, we have tried to combine nearby meetings into single pages – the idea being to make it less necessary to jump from page to page, and to give a better overview of what is available, beyond our own groups, neighborhoods and towns.

At the same time, each county has its own page(s), as do all cities, towns and neighborhoods with (roughly) two or more meetings each day.

As with all we do in A. A., we rely on each other for meeting information. Where something seems especially important to clear up, we have added a little pop-up note (Help!) to alert our visitors and ask for your help.

Please let us know – s.i.meetings@gmail.com – of any corrections, additions, subtractions and suggestions you may have – so that, together, we can let those who need us know where to find us.

Meeting Makers Make It ... but they need to know where the meetings are!

This index of A. A. meetings in the San Francisco Bay Metropolitan Area is put together from many sources, including local and central office meeting directories, the listings of local clubs, and direct information from the groups and members involved.

It is offered as a free service to anybody who can use it. It is unaffiliated with any official bodies – or with any organization at all, for that matter.

Notes

- Unless specified as “Closed”, all meetings are open to anyone with an interest in recovery from alcoholism.
- “Closed” meetings are only for those who themselves have “a desire to stop drinking.”
- You may generally assume that there is no smoking in the meetings.
- Unless specified otherwise, all meetings are one hour in length.
- The © symbol next to an address indicates that it is wheelchair-accessible.
- To make finding the meetings easier, and out of respect for our hosts, we try to fully identify the locations in which we meet.
- Where we do have to shorten names, we apologize. E.g., while all Methodists are in fact “United”, the extra word often doesn’t fit well in the lines.
- We have included Maps for each meeting, with pop-up Thomas Guide coordinates, where available.
- The meeting format, if not clear from the group name, is shown separately. If not specified, assume open discussion/participation.
- If only the format is known, the space for a group name is left blank.
- If there really is no A. A. group, however, it is not really an A. A. meeting at all. Please advise!

Preamble

Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism.

The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. There are no dues or fees for A.A. membership; we are self-supporting through our own contributions.

A.A. is not allied with any sect, denomination, politics, organization or institution; does not wish to engage in any controversy; neither endorses nor opposes any causes.

Our primary purpose is to stay sober and help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety.

Is My Area Connected?

This system relays meeting information from 109 organizations. There are 55,631 meetings currently in the system. The information is refreshed twice daily. The last refresh was 3 seconds ago.

Alcoholics Anonymous (A. A.) Meetings in the San Francisco Bay Area, California
Including Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Napa, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Solano and Sonoma Counties

At this time (April, 2011), we are able to list some 3,531 A. A. meetings (499 Spanish-speaking) in the 9 Bay Area counties listed above. Neither the listings nor this index are yet complete, though we hope to have them done by October, after which work will still remain – first of all in finding the many obviously unlisted Spanish-language meetings.

Where possible, we have tried to combine nearby meetings into single pages – the idea being to make it less necessary to jump from page to page, and to give a better overview of what is available, beyond our own groups, neighborhoods and towns.

At the same time, each county has its own page(s), as do all cities, towns and neighborhoods with (roughly) two or more meetings each day.

As with all we do in A. A., we rely on each other for meeting information. Where something seems especially important to clear up, we have added a little pop-up note (Help) to alert our visitors and ask for your help.

Please let us know – sf.meetings@gmail.com – of any corrections, additions, subtractions and suggestions you may have – so that, together, we can let those who need us know where to find us.

Meeting Makers Make It ... but they need to know where the meetings are!

This index of A. A. meetings in the San Francisco Bay Metropolitan Area is put together from many sources, including local and central office meeting directories, the listings of local clubs, and direct information from the groups and members involved. It is offered as a free service to anybody who can use it. It is unaffiliated with any official bodies – or with any organization at all, for that matter.

Notes

- Unless specified as “Closed”, all meetings are open to anyone with an interest in recovery from alcoholism.
- “Closed” meetings are only for those who themselves have “a desire to stop drinking.”
- You may generally assume that there is no smoking in the meetings.
- Unless specified otherwise, all meetings are one hour in length.
- The ♿ symbol next to an address indicates that it is wheelchair-accessible.
- To make finding the meetings easier, and out of respect for our hosts, we try to fully identify the locations in which we meet.
- Where we do have to shorten names, we apologize. E.g., while all Methodists are in fact “United”, the extra word often doesn't fit well in the lines.
- We have included Maps for each meeting with pop-up Thomas Guide coordinates, where available.
- The meeting format, if not clear from the group name, is shown separately. If not specified, assume open discussion/participation.
- If only the format is known, the space for a group name is left blank.
- If there really is no A. A. group, however, it is not really an A. A. meeting at all. Please advise!

1 First to Review

I was a foolish kid when I was younger, as many of us were. There are too many idiotic things to list, but my "date which will live in infamy" was when I was dared to take a shot of tequila in seventh grade.

"Betcha can't take this without throwing up!" Arash said mockingly.

Never to back down for anything, I took the shot. To the amazement of my friends (who all made a trip to the porcelain throne), I didn't gag or curl up into a little ball with stomach pains. They were shocked that I seemed to enjoy the Cuervo. And I actually did. I can vividly remember the warmth of the shot trickling down my throat. It was Heaven. Thus began my illustrious 18 year career as an alcoholic. The drinking and insanity reached its apex early last year, so I sought help.

Saturday Nite Live is an Alcoholics Anonymous group in San Jose established in 1981. I began going to meetings everyday for a period of time. The first thing that struck me was not the number of drunks in the room or the disheartening stories I heard that were so similar to my own, but the smell. Part urine, part vomit with a sprinkling of cigarette smoke, it fills the narrow room with a stench that's unmistakably SNL. The old building, inside and out, is not generally a place one would consider to get healthy. But that's the "charm" of Saturday Nite Live.

Never gives anyone a chance to participate if needed. Speakers are called on from the front. They don't care if you might need to share. Don't bother going here. Find a place where people are willing to listen to you.

To the drunk that feels A.A. is full of "whiney" people that blame everything on everybody else: I'm NOT gonna' fault you for your opinion. I, too, spent YEARS laughing AT A.A., the people in it made me feel like going out and getting a drink, too!! That was BEFORE I had a stroke, a good case of kidney cancer, AND lost the use of my legs--- - ALL due to the use of ALCOHOL!!! I have been sober for six(6) years, SIX!! and I might tell you-- I made a discovery-- all the "complaining," "whining," was a bunch of drunks, just like me, who were trying to work out their issues!! Of coarse, if you were a person w/ any compassion for the pain these poor people are suffering, you MIGHT be able to empathize. I get it! You CAN'T because you are STILL drinking and drowning your feelings!! You can't stand to hear it because it HURTS!! Your little "wet brain" resents it because "it" doesn't want you to get sober. GOD FORBID! You might have to take a look at what makes you SO adverse to pain. These people you speak of in such a critical manner have figured out a way to HAVE, and HONOR, their feelings w/o taking a drink. UNLIKE them, you choose to just go out and get poo-poo faced!! I get it!! I used to do the SAME thing. You may still have many years of drinking to go/endure. I hope not. I destroyed my kidney, fried my brain into a stroke, and lost the use of my legs. YES-- I AM STUBBORN!!!! I had an ego the size of Canada. I was arrogant because of my good looks. I felt self-assured. I sure didn't need you, OR your pissy little A.A. I felt it was for losers- full of whiney, feel sorry for yourselves, self absorbed, just need to get a job jerks! I felt that their only problem was that they just couldn't afford their habit. Therefore they were only there to control it in-between binges, you see!! In reality it was ME that was doing that EXACT thing. GET IT??? Oh, honey. I hope to see you in the rooms BEFORE you take that drink that makes you SOOOOOOOO sick, or, KILLS you. LOVE- The Pearl. P.S.-- I, TOO, used to think-- "That will NEVER happen to me!" I don't think that..... anymore. No. Now, now I think I'm lucky, BLESSED, to be sober-- even in a WHEELCHAIR!!

I think AA is a antiquated duck pile from 1935. That is dangerous for women and youth. I think its emotionally damaging and its 12 steps are a complete waste of time. Run from AA I say. I would rather go to a Smart , SOS or MM meetings.

This place is my life & has saved my life too many times to count. I have been Involved With A.A. for 13 years now and even after more relapses than I can count naked they still have the door wide open for me and welcome me back. To all you who don't understand and think AA is a cult or has stolen you Friends or family, just realize that you still have them here because of A.A. Otherwise they would probably be DEAD! I'm going to keep coming back and enjoy my sober times with my sober friends. When I'm in the rooms my life is great and great things happen, when I'm drinking my life goes to shit and I start to lose it all. I'm just not able to live life like I used too and this is the ONLY thing that works for this Drunk.

God grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change;
courage to change the things I can;
and wisdom to know the difference.

Preamble

Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism.

The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. There are no dues or fees for A.A. membership; we are self-supporting through our own contributions.

A.A. is not allied with any sect, denomination, politics, organization or institution; does not wish to engage in any controversy; neither endorses nor opposes any causes.

Our primary purpose is to stay sober and help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety.

Google Ad Grants – What is the problem?

- If so, does that make AA allied with Google?

“We’re anonymous, not invisible.”

67th GSC Advisory Action – The Conference Report is now available digitally.

We absolutely need a strong and consistent presence if we’re going to continue to exist.
